Hi,

We are getting tired of spam!

From now on, all existing posted forum will be locked and all of you still can access the archive.

If you have problems (installation, settings) with our components, please please:

1. Make sure you have read through the tutorial
2. Make sure you have browsed/searched through this archival forum to see if same questions have been posted and answered.
3. If it is new, please either visit our Facebook Page or Google Plus and you can post questions directly there. (be patient as we will not immediately reply your question).
4. Alternatively for partnership and so on, you can message us directly on our Twitter.

best regards,

vivociti team
